

POSITION TITLE: Learning Peer - Kinesiology (Learning Development & Success)

POSITION SUMMARY:

Learning Peers are part of the Learning Development & Success team. They volunteer in the Peer Assisted Learning (PAL) Centre. They will be asked to help in the Virtual PAL Centre (run through Zoom), the In-Person PAL Centre (afternoons in Room 4139, WSSB and evenings in Weldon Library) or in both. These are places where students can go to discuss general or course-specific learning concerns with a Learning Peer in a supportive, peer-run environment.

As a Learning Peer for Kinesiology, your role would be to help students develop learning skills and strategies to succeed at university and to respond to a wide variety of student questions about learning in Kinesiology courses as well as other courses (as you are able). The role also includes participating in outreach and exam preparation events as needed during the year.

Learning Development & Success (LDS) offers a variety of services to all students at Western, providing support through individual counselling, the PAL Centre and group presentations. The LDS team helps students cope with the demands of post-secondary learning, assisting them in identifying strengths and developing new skills and strategies for success. All services are available for both successful students wanting to maintain their already strong academic standing and those having academic difficulties (learning.uwo.ca).

What will you gain from this role?

- Develop and enhance skills for interpersonal communication, help peers, obtain teaching and leadership experience.
- Gain exposure to and awareness of learning skills counselling issues.
- Enhance awareness of personal learning strategies.
- Attain personal satisfaction and growth from being involved in a helping capacity.
- Become proficient in using Zoom and Discord/Teams (when assisting with Virtual PAL).
- Receive feedback via a midterm and year-end performance review.
- Obtain recognition through Western's Co-curricular Record.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Work 4 hours per week in the PAL Centre (hours will most likely be divided).
- Attend initial training meetings and ongoing professional development meetings.
- Monitor and respond to forum posts (MS Teams) and email communications
- Attend/Review at least one LDS presentation in the fall term and read learning skills material (or watch videos) for professional development as required.
- Complete reflections periodically throughout the year. One reflection task may include goal setting.
- Participate in outreach and exam preparation events as needed during the year, outside of PAL Centre hours.
- Promote and maintain a welcoming atmosphere in the PAL Centre.
- When working individually with a student, listen to and understand the student's questions and concerns (intellectual and emotional) and actively engage in problem solving with the student. (Examples of student questions/concerns: time management, test preparation and test taking, reading strategies, problem-solving, low grades, locating resources, understanding course concepts, etc.).

- Use collaborative strategies to promote learning communities.
- Discuss with supervisor any questions, difficulties, or problems.

POSITION REQUIREMENTS:

- Undergraduate Kinesiology student with a strong interest in learning skills. (Note: preference given to applicants who have taken and are able to assist students with Physiology 1021/2130 and Statistics 1024)
- Minimum 75% cumulative average in undergraduate courses (with a minimum of 80% in Physiology 1021/2130 and Statistics 1024 (if taken)). NOTE: applicants must provide an up-to-date copy of their grade report with their application.
- Strong communication (attending, listening, speaking) and interpersonal skills.
- Good working knowledge of campus resources.
- Problem-solving abilities.
- Have a computer and stable connection to the internet that allows for videoconferencing (when assisting with Virtual PAL).
