

Position Title: Student Writing Advisor (Writing Support Centre)

Position Summary:

Western's Writing Support Centre (WSC) supports all members of the Western community by providing services to develop and enhance writing and communication skills.

As a Student Writing Advisor (SWA), you will help the WSC meet the Western community's needs by conducting one-to-one appointments with undergraduates. During these appointments, you will give feedback on students' writing, help students develop their skills and confidence as writers, and connect students to writing resources. SWAs will be required to complete training, attend team meetings and communicate regularly with the Peer Programmer.

What will you gain from this role?

- Opportunity to work in a professional environment.
- Develop language, communication, and teaching skills.
- Experience writing in different disciplines.
- Improve personal writing skills.
- Receive oral and written feedback via performance reviews.
- Recognition through Western's Co-curricular Record.
- Accreditation as an International Peer Educator, Level 1 (College Reading and Learning Association) upon completion of all required criteria.

Key Responsibilities:

- Complete Student Writing Advisor orientation, training, and assessment.
- Shadow senior advisors during training; integrate feedback into practice.
- Provide feedback to undergraduate students in one-to-one appointments; encourage students' skill development and confidence in writing ability; recommend resources.
- Attend unit meetings.
- Respond to supervisor emails promptly.
- Follow all WSC policies and protocols and uphold WSC's values.
- Complete reflections periodically throughout the year as part of SWA assessment.

Position Requirements:

- Must be an excellent writer and oral communicator.
- Must demonstrate professional conduct, commitment, and reliability.
- Must have excellent interpersonal and empathetic listening skills.
- Must be in the third or fourth year of a Western undergraduate program or higher.
- Must submit 1) a letter of reference from a professor and 2) one additional reference, either academic or professional (e.g. an employer or supervisor). Only contact information (name, relation to the applicant, email, and phone) is required for the second reference.
- Must have an accumulative average of 80% or above on a minimum 2.0 essay courses (E or F/G). Candidates must submit an unofficial transcript in their application.
- Must be willing to reflect on and accept performance feedback.
- Must be willing to complete hybrid work (in-person and virtual) at WSC locations.

POSITION SPECIFICS:

TERM LENGTH:

Fall/Winter terms, August 18, 2025 – April 10, 2026

(training in August will be conducted virtually over Zoom and rolled out online)

TIME COMMITMENT:

- 2 hours per week of one-to-one appointments with students (after completion of shadowing).
- Unit meetings (1 hour each, twice a semester minimum).
- No commitments during December/April exam periods or Fall/Winter Readings Weeks.

POSITION TRAINING:

- Approximately 10 hours of WSC training [6 hours of orientation and training + attendance at 4 undergraduate writing seminars during the academic year (1 hour each)].
- Minimum 6 hours of shadowing senior advisors.

WESTERN PEER LEADER (WPL) TRAINING:

- Complete Human Resources Training:
