

POSITION TITLE: Virtual Summer Activity Coordinator (Writing Support Centre)

Position Summary:

Western's Writing Support Centre (WSC) supports all members of the Western Community by providing comprehensive services to develop and enhance writing and communication skills.

The Virtual Summer Activity Coordinator will work with other team members to develop and execute programming for the Language in Culture Series (LinCS)—a two-day virtual program for international learners taking place in July. Your role is to welcome incoming students to Western and assist in their transition to university by sharing your insight about the WSC, campus services, and learning resources and answering applicable questions in a peer-group format.

What will you gain from this role?

- Develop and enhance communication, interpersonal, and leadership skills.
- Gain experience in planning and executing virtual programming at the postsecondary level.
- Support others' learning and transition to university.
- Receive feedback via a performance review.
- Obtain recognition through Western's Co-curricular Record.

Key Responsibilities:

- Meet with student groups on Zoom and share critical insight regarding campus services and learning resources. Meetings may involve running icebreaker activities, Q&A sessions, or a Student Panel.
- Promote and answer applicable questions about the Writing Support Centre and its services through the LinCS course page on OWL.
- Support your fellow team members and provide constructive feedback when required.
- Support WSC staff during lectures by managing Zoom chat or responding to lecturer prompts.

Position Requirements:

- Must demonstrate maturity and comfort in managing group discussions online and sharing insight from university experience.
- Must have excellent teamwork skills. The ability to compromise and work with others to find creative solutions is essential.
- Must be responsible and reliable. Communicating promptly via email is essential.
- Familiarity with Writing Support Centre services is an asset.
- Preference for students entering second year or higher of a Western program with experience writing in first-year courses.
- Preference for students who have experience with international learning and/or learners.
- Reliable Zoom access.
- Positive and supportive attitude.
- Punctuality is essential.
- Must be proficient in English. Experience with other languages is an asset.
